We all enjoyed the course and found it very useful. Martin Woodfield, our trainer, covered everything we had discussed beforehand. Martin was an excellent trainer and I will recommend this course to any of our colleagues looking for PowerPoint training in the future. We all feel that we learnt a lot from the day, that will enable us to improve the way we use PowerPoint in the future.

The course was good and very enlightening, and I was right that we are literally only just scraping the surface. Martin really knew his stuff and I was very impressed with the set up and the small group size.
